ABOUT

Jane has been a film and television editor for over 13 years. Her narrative film work includes comedy, horror, drama, and science fiction in both short and feature formats and has been featured at film festivals around the world. Her recent work includes the feature film "The Cuban," starring Louis Gossett Jr., and the sci-fi drama "Rememory" (Peter Dinklage), which premiered at the Sundance Film Festival in 2017 and which was nominated for a CCE award for Best Editing in a Feature Film.

In television, her work includes the Emmy and BAFTA-winning PBS children's series "Odd Squad", as well as projects for Canadian, US, and international television networks and streaming services including Hulu, Amazon, PBS, BBC, CBC, TV5 (France), NHK (Japan), and others.

Through her company Fast Hat Films, Jane provides development, editorial, and post-production consultation services for both narrative and documentary projects. She currently serves on the board of the Canadian Cinema Editors.
